Donna and I would Walk and pray for hours.... this past September she sent me a prayer cloth which is in my pillow case right. I know she has touched so many lives and her rewards will be many. “ I only had the Joy of meeting Donna in September of this year. I immediately trusted her with my heart. I was able to come to her with my hearts issues and she didn't judge me. She prayed for and with me until I felt breakthrough. It is with tears that I say until we meet in heaven I will press forward to the prize of the inheritance with the saints who have gone on before me.

“ I have never had a friend who loved Jesus more passionately. She was my prayer partner for many, many years. We shared our joys and our sorrows and together always believed the promises our Lord gave us. I don't think.
