“ Aunt Lucille you lived your life serving Jesus. You were loved by all that knew you. Your battle has been fought and won. When you entered those pearly gates of Heaven at that moment Heaven gained another Angel and we lost a diamond. Your family and friends are saddened by our loss. You are rejoicing, you've passed from death into eternal life where there's no more sickness, sadness, worries and your memory is now perfect. Your love for your family was unconditional . I remember how you loved taking care of your grand and great grandchildren. You loved flowers and had some beautiful ones . I'm sure you're already working in Gods beautiful gardens. You've made it home and someday I want to stroll over Heaven with you. Family and friends this is not good bye just good night. RIP Aunt Lucille look for me for I will be there soon. You will forever be in our hearts as the loving, kind woman you were. Good Night

Lucille, I remember the old days. I have so many memories of those times. You, Frances and me sure could tell some stores of back then. I pray for your family and MAY YOU REST IN PEACE. You have deserved your spot in Heaven. I will never forget you and your goodness.
