“ My Dear Auntie D, I miss her so much. She was my favorite aunt and I don't think I ever told her so. I know she is in a better place and she can breathe again but she is missed dearly. It does me good to see the notes here that corroborate some of the reasons that she holds such a special place in my heart. It just shows what a truly unique person she was and how she affected so many people in her life. You are missed greatly Auntie D but I'm so glad that you are finally together again with Uncle Red, he's been waiting for some time now. I'm looking forward to the day when I see you both again. I love you very much Auntie D!

“ To the family and friends of Doris Miller. What a glorious day she had as she entered the gates of Heaven. Standing with Angels she is in no pain nor sorrow. I had the extreme pleasure and honor of knowing, loving and caring for Doris during my Administration at Azalea House in Henderson. She was a breath of fresh air even on her worst days. She fought to the very end and I know she gave it all she had. I pray peace and comfort for her family and I for one will look forward to seeing her when I get to heaven. I loved you bunches Doris, and the same for your beautiful Faith filled family. What a testimony of Gods followers.

I was so saddened to hear that Doris had passed. Doris was so much more than a sister-in-law to me, she was like a sister. Although we have not seen each other in a long time, I loved her and thought of her often. I know that she and my brother, Milton (Red) Wilkes, loved each other very much and had many years of happiness together until his death. My son, Roger, and I wanted to attend her funeral, but we are both in such poor health we could not make the trip from Keene, TX. My daughter, Sue, lives in Washington State and other son, Billy Fred, lives in So. Carolina. Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family.
