Today you say goodbye to your mommy. It will always be the hardest day of your life. As your cousin I wish I could tell you it gets easier but it doesn't. You just know that they are healed now. As her niece left letter for her kids 11 years ago I am sure Aunt Doris would say the same to you kids for you kids to stay together help one another and weep of you must then let her go she with her baby boy now . RIP Aunt Doris your with mommy aunt Edna you women stay out of trouble and you have your baby boy with you again . Love Kim
