I worked with Doris at Piggly Wiggly. She was a sweetheart, always caring about our customers or our employees in their time of need. I had no realives in Henderson and Doris and Bill treated me like one of their own. After I left Henderson, I moved to the Dallas-Fort Worth area. When I had time off I would come to visit my "Henderson" family. After I got marries in 1995, I brought my wife Carolyn to meet my "Henderson" family. Carolyn fell in love with Doris her first meeting. We came back a couple of times after that to see her. We kept in touch through Exchanging Christmas cards. We received one this past Christmas. We will always treasured this one. To the family, she was a great and a Christian lady and we will miss her. Love, Ron and Carolyn Smith
