“ My Aunt Dot meant the world to me. So much i named my daughter after her. From when I was in diapers and threw my entire life. When I was feeling down she would pick me up. No matter what, she always agreed with me on everything and was always on my side weather I was right or wrong. When i would get off work late i would call and talk toÂ herÂ on my ride home no matter what time it was she would pick up. We would talk almost every day. That's what I will miss the most. Her supporting, sweet, loving, kind, understanding, reassuring voice. You will always be in my heart.
