“ Mrs. Dorothy, oh how I loved you. You were my friend and my NASCAR buddy. I enjoyed our times together. I learned so much from you. I will miss our talks. You will forever be my friend and I will sure look you up in Heaven. I can only imagine your joy at seeing your beloved daughter. GOD BLESS YOU and your family you were so crazy about. I love you Sandra Costlow

“ Dale, Alton , Claudine ,MY sympathies to all of you in the loss of Dorothy. She was a dear friend of many years and will certainly be missed. I treasure all the mornings we spent drinking coffee waiting to pick up all the parts J.T. had just sold... WE also walked in our neighborhood and enjoyed every minute..

“ To Dorothy's family, You have so much to be thankful for to have had such a wonderful sister, mother , grand-mother and aunt. Dorothy was one-of-a-kind and I already miss her directness and keen sense-of-humor. The world needs more people like Dorothy. She was ready to go home and I know that she is in the presence of many family members today. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you work your way through this loss. Mary Alice Rice
