“ The world is a better place because Douglas Blevins was in it...he was GOOD in so many ways: he was a wonderful son in law to my Mother and he never missed an opportunity to do things for her; he was a wonderful husband to my sister and enriched her life in every possible way; he was a fantastic brother in law and filled many roles in that capacity...we loved him! He was a fantastic Dad to my nephews and niece. He will not be forgotten. A great PAWPAW AND FRIEND! He was a much loved member of his birth family... thank you guys for sharing him with us and yourselves as well with us. His greatness was in being there with a quiet , lopsided smile and the deep rumble of a chuckle that started deep down by his heart I think. We ALL will miss him. NONE OF US WILL FORGET THAT SUCH A MAN ENRICHED OUR LIVES JUST BY BEING THERE. SEE YA, Doug!!

“ I was very fortunate in having Douglas as my father-in-law for 35 yrs. He was a kind man who possessed a steady presence, integrity & heart. I can truly say that I lucked out with him as my father-in-law & will miss our conversations when we'd check in on him & his buddy, Bear or him calling us to check in on us. May he rest in peace.

“ Doug was my big brother and though as children we had our squabbles, he made up for it as we aged. He loved family and always brought out the best in us by being the kind, gentle but yet tough guy that he was. I will miss his quiet ways and the love he shared so freely with us all.
