“ I'll never forget the story that Doyle told about him and Roscoe (aka Blackie). Blackie had accidentally drove into a tree in a pasture and bent the bumper on Doyle's truck. On the way home Doyle and Blackie stopped at a mini-mart. Blackie stayed outside and squatted in front of the truck to roll a Prince Albert and have a " Real Cigarette " and not a "Ready Roll". When Doyle came out he told Blackie, "That's a pretty good dent huh?" Blackie answered...."Yep, I reckon we better get on home and snatch her out before she gets cold and sets up." Doyle was smiling from ear to ear and laughing when he told the story.
