“When you come to the edge of all of the light you've known, and are about to step off into the darkness of the unknown; faith is knowing one of two things will happen. You'll have something solid to stand on, or you'll be taught how to fly.”

Dylan is at peace in heaven....and has learned "how to fly" with the angels. Our most sincere sympathy and condolences to Misti and her family on the loss of a very special young man. Prayers for peace and healing during the difficult years of grieving ahead. It takes time and don't let anyone tell you how long that time is....everyone is different in how they grieve and how long it takes to move forward again....just know that you are very loved by so many.
