“ Well, "Old Pro", I see you have gone to collect your last trophy. I have missed playing golf with you these past few yrs. You gave me a lot of good pointers, things I could never really pull off. Then one day you told me that I had hit a ball "like a pro". I knew then I had qualified in the Old Pro's mind. You taught me alot about life too. There were more important things in life than golf. We would play until a certain time and, even though I hoped we could play a few more holes, you would say you had to go take care of your "bride" Well, Pro, if there is golf in heaven, it's probably time to pack in the clubs and go sit down and have a nice conversation with your "Bride". You are missed

“ Mr. Crim was a great man who I looked up to as a young person. My dad (Joe Skelton) and Mr. Crim played a lot of golf together through out the years and I even had the opportunity to play with Mr. Crim many times. I believe he held the course record for many years at Henderson Country Club. Mr. Crim was one of my heroes growing up. It was special just knowing Mr. Crim. My dad always spoke highly of E.F. Crim.

“ Elias - your dad always brought a smile to anyone he greeted. The Country Club needs a statue of him on the first tee box (cause he owned that course.) Joy and I are saddened at the passing of a legend. All our love, Joy and Larry

“ Mr. Crim was always cordial and friendly each time I met him on the street or in the post office. That speaks to the type man he was. We don't have many left like him. My condolences to the family at this sad time. Billy Martin Longview

“ We extend our sympathy to all of you. Mandy, I fondly remember your Dad and his laughter during the years that you and I were growing up together. Then, as our son, Derek, developed a passion for golf, EF took a special interest in him. They played many games at the Henderson Country Club and had a unique relationship, despite their age differences. We will keep all of you in our prayers during this time.

“ Posted on FB: "EF" CRIM has passed away and he will be greatly missed. Personally, I will miss his warm smile, his blushing cheeks when he chuckled, his wit and of course his dry sense of humor. God shared this precious soul with us here for 92 blessed years and I am thankful he was my friend. I know he has been such a blessing to so many. Golf was his favorite game and Baylor was his alma mater. Rumor has it he was a NOZE BROTHER as well.) He was preceded in death by his adoring wife "Ake" and his precious daughter, my best friend, Kay Crim Loritsch. I know he must be having a great reunion and is among the best singing and dancing up there. Miss you EF...I love you. p
