

Mrs. Elaine Bollinger

July 21, 1943 - September 21, 2015

On September 21, 2015 we celebrated the life and grieved the loss of Mrs. Elaine Bollinger, 72, of Mt. Enterprise, as she passed from this life and back into the embrace of those who loved her most.

Elaine was born on July 21, 1943 to parents, Jess and Della Kenney, of Rosiclare, Illinois. Having moved to rural East Texas in the late 70s with her beloved husband Virgil Nelson Bollinger, Elaine was a long time employee of BJ's Farmer's Market in Nacogdoches. She also spent time managing a small family-owned farmer's market just outside of Mt. Enterprise. Elaine's days were filled with joy as she helped nurture her goddaughter and later reveled in the attention of her two youngest granddaughters. Mrs. Bollinger was an avid painter, woodworker, seamstress and gardener. She and husband, Nelson, spent countless hours working together on beautiful artisan chests and dresser boxes, most of which were given as gifts to those they shared their lives with. Those gifts created and given out of love will continue to fill the homes they occupy with joy and memories.

Mrs. Bollinger is survived by: son, Jimmy Clark; goddaughter, Tiffani Patterson; brother, Bud Kenney; sisters, Charlotte, Ella, and Linda; grandson, Derrick Clark; granddaughters Maddie Clark, Lindsay Clark, Alura Patterson and Harper Lynn; and special friends, Nancy Grubbs, Amber Lollar, Judy Weatherly, John Langston and Mr. Lupe.

Elaine was preceded in death by: husband, Virgil Nelson Bollinger; parents, Jess and Della Kenney; son, Lonnie Clark; and grandson, Catlin Vaughn.

As per Mrs. Bollinger's wishes, cremation arrangements have been made with Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home.
