“Dane and Joan and Families, I send my sincere sympathy to you and your families at the loss of your dear Father. I am thankful to our God that he did give him a long term of years on this earth. I pray that our Great God of unending love will surround you and your families during this period of mourning and give you the love, strength and comfort in the days ahead. Thanks you for your loving care that you provided to him in these last year. God Bless, a distant cousin, Jerry Davis
