“ *Sending Love and Prayers to this family from your cousins in West Texas. With the great distance between us, we didn't get to know Eric like we would have liked. But it doesn't change the fact that we are family and we stand beside you with love, prayers and support! May God's peace that passes all understanding cover all of you at this time of grief. “ Eric was a shipmate of mine aboard AO-179 the U.S.S. Merrimack. I was only there a short time but became great friends with him and was only ever in touch through social media since then. Still, I admired his hard working and fun loving attitude and I wish for all his family to find peace now. I also am very happy to see that Allen is a pallbearer for this. May he Rest In Peace. Miss ya buddy.
