“Mrs. Estelle was one of the most caring and "fun" people I have ever met. We sat together at the Tatum High School football games and had a ball. She was also such a blessing to us at First Baptist Church Tatum. She was a "first class" lady and will truly be missed.

“ My heart feels the void of Estelle's passing you all are experiencing. I have many wonderful memories of her wit and compassionate heart. She was so prim and proper and a joy to be around. I remember also what a great cook she was. I so regret not being able to visit with her these last few years. May God be your comforter in her loss. Love to you all, Bill & Gloria
