“ I joined the Poetry Society of Texas in the fall of 1978, so I have known Evelyn for a number of years. I was hoping to make it to the service, but did not get to leave the doctor's office that day until 12:26 in Mesquite, Texas. Evelyn was a fine woman and an excellent poet and will be greatly missed.

I pray for God's comfort and peace for her family, friends, and fellow poets in the Rusk County Chapter of the Poetry Society of Texas.

“ Evelyn was not only a mentor and teacher, but a lover of life. She always saw the good in others finding a way to lift ones spirit with wisdom and hope.

I stopped by her home on her 95th birthday where surrounded by family, she was gererous with hugs and hospitality.

This precious lady was brilliant, a treasure and giver. I will miss her and will treasure her fingerprint on my life.

Love to you all. May God bless you abundantly.
