“ Ms Faye was one of the best friends that I ever had. She was always smiling, positive and upbeat. She was such a sweet person. I could tell so many stories about Ms Faye. She was a good, down to earth person. She gave more to this world than she ever took. I pray for her family and remind them that we will meet her again someday! Rest in peace Ms Faye.

“ A lovely lady. She always had a smile to share. While working with her at Wal-Mart I learned much from her. Ms. Faye always had something kind to say to each person she encountered. She was loved by many people.

“ Mrs Sweet Faye. You were a ray of sunshine to all. You shared your jokes and inspired me to always work hard. I remember when you invited us WalMart associates for lunch and tea. We called you Speedy Gonzales , you were always full blast. You said, might as well get there and get it done so we can move on to something else. Might be better than the last task. Thank you for your inspiration. Go rest high on that mountain.

“ I first met ms Faye over 40 years ago when she worked for TG&Y in the fabric department. My twin girls were 1 to 2 years old. She cut the fabric for my sewing for my twins. Years later we re- met at Walmart where she work there with us for over 20 years. I've never had a dearer friend. And yes she was like a dear sweet mother to many of us who had the prevlege to know her. I've missed her very much since she moved away. But now our Lord is giving her her long awaiting rest. Ms. Faye I will never forget you as long as I live. You were a true blessing to everyone you knew and met. My life will never be the same without you. God bless your sweetest soul. Hugs and kisses and many many prayers as I always signed my letters to you. 🙏🥺❤️🌈 I guess our God was needing his little sweet and tough angel back to heaven.
