“ I choose to remember my uncle as he was in 2017, the last time all his remaining siblings gathered for a small family get together. He was on my Dad's patio flipping, his famous burgers, making homemade ice cream and teaching everyone how to spit watermelon seeds. I traveled up that year with him and his daughter Becky. He was so much fun to travel with, full of stories about growing up in East Texas, sharing memories of his grandparents that are now priceless. He was truly interested in his family history and was always eager to add information. He loved to garden. I can remember as a little girl his garden, especially his tomatoes. He loved his family with all of his heart and was so proud of his children and his grandchildren. He was a kind, caring, considerate person. The world has lost a true gentleman. I miss him already

“ Dad was a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He modeled kindness, perseverance and the value of hard work. From a share cropper upbringing in a family of eight children, he aspired to travel and learn to fly. Occupations he held include USAF airman, factory worker, carpenter, preacher, HVAC technician, Maintenance worker, antique furniture restorer and business owner. None of those defined the man he was. No one worked longer or harder than he, with the exception of his wife Edith. He loved to travel and doted on his grandchildren and great grandchildren. We will miss you Dad and love you forever. Thank you Dad for raising us with solid and lasting values.
