“ Marie, Ethel, Kevin and Kenneth, How deeply sad I am for you all. I got to know Frank in the mid '70s and even worked for him for several years before I moved to Missouri in '86. Then I found him on e-bay one day and have gotten to visit with him on Facebook since. He was a gentle man.. Probably no doubt one of the best bosses I ever had. He was honest and keep his word. I got to know all of you will working with him and after I moved I truly missed everyone. And now he is in great care of our loving Heavenly Father. Rest in peace, Frank. My prayers are with you Postell family.

“ I believe I met Frank only once in person. We spoke only a few times through social media - but when I was going through an extremely rough time Frank was genuinely concerned with what I was going through and how I was coping. He helped me more than would have ever known - thank you Frank! May you rest in peace.

“ My most sincere condolences to the entire family. I did not know Mr. Frank, but I do know Kevin. If the son is anything like the father, dad was one heck of a man! Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

“ I have so many memories of Frank it was hard for me to think of just one special memory to share. I first met Frank when I was a newlywed, married to his younger brother. He loved to tease & make jokes, often at my expense. But there was one time-only one-that I was able to get back at him. He called our house one evening after work, & I answered the phone. He didn't say "Hello" or "Can I talk to Buster?" He said "Well, I didn't want to talk to you!" Thinking quickly for once, I said "Okay." and hung up the phone and just waited. When the phone rang again, I answered "Hello?" just as if I hadn't spoken to him just seconds ago. He was laughing and said "Okay, I'll talk to you." I don't remember who was in the room with Frank at the time, but they later told me he stood there with the telephone in his hand, saying "She hung up on me....I can't believe she hung up on me!" Thinking of it still makes me smile.

Marie, Ethel, Kenneth, & Kevin, I have been praying for comfort for you & for your families; this is such a hard time. I know there aren't any words that will take away the pain you are feeling now. The hurt doesn't go away, but it does get easier to bear. I will be keeping you all in my prayers. I loved Frank, and I love you all.
