“ My thoughts are with you all today. It does not seem that long ago that we were all together as neighbors and friends in that small community of Joinerville, Tx. (Gaston). My what fun we all had at the store when Larry would come by for gas and he and my dad would tease with each other. Frieda was such a fine person, always smiling and friendly to everyone. Never forgot to ask about each member of the family whenever we met. She will be missed. John, Larry, and Vicki, you are all in my prayers. Donna Boatwright Saffell

“ A lot of years have passed since Johnny Chevallier coached the Little League team from the Humble Oil camp in Turnertown. But I remember Mrs. Chevallier as always being friendly and hospitable to this group of kids. I wish the family comfort during this time of sorrow.

“ Ms. Chevallier was my Spanish teacher at Carlisle High School my Jr. year. She was one of my favorite teachers. What patience she had and I always thought she was so beautiful. I remember Larry and also when Viki became part of the family. (However, I remember her being Victoria if memory serves me right) I just wanted to say that I have always remembered Ms. Chevallier over the last 50 years and often wondered how to contact her. By the way, I went on to become a teacher too.
