“ I keep thinking about the first time I met Gavin. My grandson was hanging out around the house and they were want to make a fire but were having a hard time getting it started. So I go out to help with some rubbing alcohol and pour out on the wood light the fire. There was a little left in the bottle so I decided to squeeze the bottle on the fire toss the bottle in the fire. Well some how I caught Gavin's pants leg on fire. I was freaking out. I embarrassed myself so much and Gavin was like it's cool,nice to meet you. We laughed about that day often. He was good at making a person smile.
