“ Sweet servant of and for Gods Kingdom. You are now with the one who you have served all the days of your life. You always had a smile and a hug for everyone she loved. Served the church by supporting many ideas. You could always count on her to do a little more in whatever the Blossom Hill United Methodist Church, those in the Community . She also supported a lot of other people, other Communities, and anything else she thought was a necessity and to Glorify and grow the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. She Has now been made whole in the presence of her Heavenly Father. Rest Gay Nell you have earned your place in Heaven for sure. To the family for whom we have prayed for so constant,we know your hearts are broken but God gives us love, strength and Grace to get through this. May you have Peace and happy, memories to remember .

Our Deepest Sympathies,
David & Kathy Chapman
