

Mr. Gerald David Harris

November 8, 1948 - December 30, 2024

Mr. Gerald David Harris, 76, of Henderson, passed from this life on December 30, 2024, at his residence. He was born November 8, 1948, in Jacksonville to the late Willie B. and Beatrice (Kirkpatrick) Harris. David graduated from John Tyler High School and went on to a storied career in radio. While in high school, he began working as a disc jockey. He later moved to Atlanta where he worked for KALT-KPYN, a working relationship that lasted most of his life. Mr. Harris moved from a DJ to sports announcer and later into media sales.

David was an avid golfer and enjoyed drinking coffee with his friends at the local pharmacy. He was a life-long member of the Church of Christ, and the Dallas Cowboys ranked nearly just as high. David never missed a game, even if it meant holding off on getting medical attention.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his great-grandson Memphis Duke.

Survivors include his children, John Harris and wife Kim of Lowell, Indiana, and Jayda Harris Ramirez and husband Travis Dixon of Henderson; the mother of his children, Jeanell Neeley and husband Ray of Henderson; grandchildren, Jordan Harris and wife Claire, Noah Harris and wife Frannie, Benjamin Harris and fiancé Abigail, Lacey Duke and husband Randy, and twins Joshua and Joshalyn Ramirez; and great-grandchildren, Daisy and Rosie Duke.

A private burial will be held under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Joshua and Joshalyn Ramirez, Jordan Harris, Noah Harris, Ben Harris, and Randy Duke.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.crawfordacrim.com.
