

Mrs. Gertie Mae Wilson

December 31, 1937 - March 9, 2018

Funeral services for Mrs. Gertie Mae Wilson, 80, of Gladewater, will be held at 2PM on Tuesday, March 13, 2018 at Crawford - A. Crim Funeral Home with Pastor Markus Davidson and David Brasher officiating. Interment will follow at Mt. Hope Cemetery under the direction of Crawford - A. Crim Funeral Home. A visitation will be held on Monday, March 12, 2018 from 6PM to 8PM at the funeral home. Mrs. Wilson passed away March 9, 2018, at her residence in Gladewater.

Mrs. Wilson was born on December 31, 1937 in Wayne County, Tennessee to the late Mr. Nimrod Brasher and Mary Wilson Brasher. She was a mom and homemaker, and had lived in Gladewater since 1978. She had a green thumb and was a gifted gardener, and also collected crosses. Mrs. Wilson loved arts and crafts, and also loved to shop. She was a member of Rock Hill Christian Fellowship in White Oak for over 20 years.

Preceding Mrs. Wilson in death was her husband, Louis Wilson; her parents; brothers, W.M. Brasher, Bud Brasher, and Roy Brasher; her sister, Edna Melton; and her son-in-law, Butch Smith.

Survivors include her children, Wayne Wilson and wife Cindy of Gladewater, Glenn Wilson of Gladewater, Debra Smith of Gilmer, Dee Osborn and husband Clyde of Gilmer, and Robert Wilson and wife Brandi of Gladewater; siblings, Viola Bolen of Kalamazoo, Michigan, Charles Brasher of Gladewater, and Rachel Barker of Sallisaw, Oklahoma; grandchildren, April Hines, Patrick Wilson, Jeffrey Wilson, Amber Osborn, Travis Osborn, Clyde Osborn III, Gene Osborn, Stacy Trimble, Cody Smith, Ashleigh Wilson, Linda Luna, Christopher Luna, and Reyna Luna; 31 great-grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Harold Jackson, Greg Connally, Brian Connally, Matthew Jackson, Mike Darby, and Mitchell Shelley.
