“ Family, I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved mother/grandmother. I met her on several occasions many years ago...she was a sweet lady! I wanted to tell you something about your grandfather though, whom I dearly loved. I have had the opportunity to hear and participate in many funeral services (due to my occupation), and Bro. Stafford Harris preached the "best" one that I have ever heard, even thru today. It was for an elderly lady from his church at the time, and I would entitle it "Y'all Come". He spoke of her and her body in the terms of the song..."This Old House"...and at the end, he related to her life today in Heaven and her calling her family with "Y'all Come". Beautiful service. I think your parents/grandparents would today say the same thing again to each of you..."Y'all Come to where we are now!" Kristie and Cory, I think of you often. Loved having you in my Sunday BTC classes, years ago. Love you, Charlotte Partin

She will be missed by many, but she is in heaven with our Lord and her wonderful husband, Uncle Stafford. We have so many memories of them and going to their house for a fish fry. MY heart and prayers go out to her family and friends.

I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of Ms.Harris. I met her while I was doing nails. She shared a few of her yard plants, in which I have at least one left. Since I retired I I have thought of her often. We shared a laugh or two over the years. Once she said your dad was hunting behind their house. Someone lock him in.

He finally got out and was convinced that she was the guilty person.

She said he didn't speak to her for a few days.ha!

Both your parents were fine Christian people. My husband worked with your dad at Nibco. I'll remember them both fondly.
