“ My Uncle Harold the last of the Wilburn brothers will be greatly missed. I have nothing but fond memories of him. Oh what I'd give to hear him chuckle that laugh of his once more. I was lucky enough to have a very special relationship with him. As I was growing up he spent a lot of time at our house. I remember him and Leroy spending the night on our couch on many occasions. As a teenager I had the privilege of going with him to help him tend to his cattle that were in a pasture down below our house in Bethel. I am so thankful for having that time with him and getting to know him so well. He was so funny and he always had a twinkle in his eyes and always had his own way of saying things. I remember him telling many people at different times if he didn't agree with them, he would say "Your Crazy" in only a way that Uncle Harold could say it. Another famous saying of his that I will never forget is when he would say "I'll bat you like a bat and a ball". My Uncle Harold is truly the last of a dying breed. I know there was some rejoicing in Heaven for sure when Uncle Harold made his arrival. I love you Uncle Harold and will miss you so much, my very own Waylon Jennings. 😊🥺
