“ Dear Paul and Cindy,I am so sorry to hear of Helen's passing. She was such a dear person.When my grandmother in Henderson died in 1982, Billy and Helen came up to me at the funeral home, and Billy said, "You probably don't remember us." I told him that I could never forget either of them because they were always so unfailingly kind and sweet to me when I was a little kid. When I would spend the night at their house, they made me the center of attention and made me feel so special. You don't forget people like that.Please accept my sympathy of your painful loss.Ron Ozio(Doris and Henry's son)

“ Dear Paul, Cindy and Family,Bob and I were so saddened to learn of your dear Mother's passing. Helen was such a beautiful and caring lady! She and Billy Pat are together again, and as I've reminded myself in the grieving of my parents, they want us to be happy. They are with Jesus, and we can rejoice even though their absence hurts a lot! Love all of you, Sherri (Hunt) and Bob Nelson Hugs to you!

“ Helen Patrick was like a mother to me. I have so many wonderful memories of our Kilgore Drive days....going to her house for afternoon coffee with Frances, Rita Fay, Ruby, and my mother; Helen would make me a cup of coffee with lots of milk and sugar; I was just tall enough to reach the table and she allowed me to drink my coffee with them. How grown up I felt! Often on Friday nights we would go to Longview for supper at Howard Johnson's or El Chico's OR sometimes we would be invited to the Patrick's house for those wonderful steaks Billy grilled outside! In early November we would make one of our Friday night treks to Longview for supper and on the way home we would stop "at the river" where Billy and Daddy would go in the liquor store and buy one small bottle of whiskey; the next week Helen and Mozelle would share the bottle to make their fruitcakes! Helen was an excellent cook....I treasure the recipe she wrote me for her Apple Blossom Cake. I still have the white organdy pinafore she made me (she was an excellent seamstress, too) when I was just 3 or 4 years old. She was always by Billy's side, promoting him, caring for him and their home, managing their business and personal finances in a highly professional, ethical manner. Her cheerful, quiet manner, gracious style, and loving smile will be missed. I have read Proverbs 31 many times the past few days as I thought of Helen. I am so thankful that on Sunday afternoon I was able to tell her that yes, her children (me included) do "rise up to call her blessed". She was a blessing in my life and these memories and so many more I will always cherish in my heart!

“Helen was my first cousin, she being the daughter of Mrs. O.L. Hall (Fannie Tatham Hall). It has been way too many years since I visited Henderson (1961) and I remember that visit so well, even to this day. I stayed with Fannie and Lyndon, but Helen and Billie were good to me. I remember riding with Billie in that big truck of his to deliver a load of gravel (I think it was). It would be good to visit Henderson again someday. There must be a ton of memorial flowers that need to be set out in all the special places.

“Helen was my first cousin - her mother and mine (Aunt Julia) were sisters. It has been many years since I have seen Helen; however, my mother did give me news about her and her family, especially when they came to visit with her in Asheville, North Carolina during the summer.I remember Helen as being a charming and happy lady, and I would loved to have been able to see her more often than I did. To all of her family, my husband Steve and I offer our deepest sympathy. Our prayers are with you.

“A week ago I spoke with Helen by phone talking about our "Tatham Reunion" in North Carolina held on July 17. She sounded so wonderful and happy to hear from my twin sister and me. Although we have'nt seen each other in many years, the Tatham bond was still there. Her mother, Fannie, was my father, Henry Tatham's sister. May she rest in peace.

“ Oh my. I'm so sad. I have wonderful memories of your family. I remember sleepovers with Cindy when we were in school. I 'member eating dinner with you guys and waiting for her to get home from work to make her creamed corn. She was always telling you two to quit picking on each other. Ever the true southern lady she was a wonderful hostess and she and your dad were the best. I know what you're going through having lost my mom in May of this year. I'm sure your fond memories of her will make things easier for you. You're in my prayers.

“ Dear Cindy, Paul, and family ~I'm so sorry about the loss you have just sustained and my heart goes out to you. I was shocked when I saw her obituary in the paper today. Please know that I thought the world of Mrs. Patrick and I am so glad I got to have a long telephone conversation with her recently. She kept me laughing the whole time with her stories and she was sharp as a tack!!! Just know that I'm sure she had a wonderful welcoming committee to meet her in Heaven when she arrived and they're all having a grand time right about now. We'll all meet her again some day and have LOTS to talk and laugh about. My prayers are with you all at this sad time in your lives.

“ My deepest sympathy is with you during this time of great loss. Although I haven't seen her in many years, we have had some good phone visits recently renewing our family ties. Her mother and my father were sister - brother, and the family ties are strong. May God bless you with many beautiful memories and the confidence of a reunion in heaven some day.

“ Miss Helen was one of those rare people that one meets along the way in life. She was always so nice to all that knew her. I used to see her at the gas company and at the bank and will always remember the smile she had for everyone. She was a bright spot in Mt. Enterprise and was so well liked by all the community.
