“ I met Capt Homer at Martin Marine. He always had something funny and nice to say. Sad to hear he is gone. The world needs more people like him.

“ I have so many memories of ole Homer, from childhood to adulthood. But the one that comes to mind the most is how he loved to pick on me and make me boiling hot mad calling me Melton. And when he laughed about calling me Melton I'd have to punch him in the arm. Then he would get tickled about making me so mad. I know he is in Heaven playing a guitar and singing in our Lords Heavenly band.

“ Lots of memories with my cousin, but my favorite is one from childhood. I was young, 4-5 or so. He was 4 years older and just loved to pick on me. I don't remember what he did, but I remember what I did. He was standing on the ground right by the porch and I was on the porch so...I leaned forward and bit the crap out of his nose and boy did he scream...lol....still laugh about it

“ We will truly miss Homer here at Martin Marine. He was a great mariner and mentor to many. I remember the day Homer and wife came to our office in LaPorte, TX and sat in my office and Homer said “I’m your man to be a Captain of one of our boats. I’ll never forget his pride for Martin Marine and dedication. Great man!
