“ So sorry for your loss. Tommy you were a good son. Last time I saw you, you had your dad at the doctor's office. I can honestly say I know how you feel. But know he is at rest and there will be a day of reunion and rejoicing.

“ We just visited with Homer not to very long ago..and he was in good spirits. We talked for the longest about his Daddy, (my Great-Uncle Jake), Aunt Dovie, and all the multitude of Fears' in Rusk County. My Granny was Laura Fears... and growing up, I had the hardest time keeping up with who was cousin, uncle or aunt, except for Homer. My Daddy, Herman, and Homer were not only first cousins, but best of friends. Any conversation with Homer always included talking about my Daddy. Homer was one of the most honest, easy going people there ever was! We will miss him a lot. He's not hurtin' anymore.

“ I am so sorry for your loss of Mr Fears. It was truly a blessing to take care of him at the hospital all these years. He always had a "witty" remark and always in a good mood. He will be missed.Patricia Nix,RN - ETMC Henderson
