

Howard D. Williams

March 23, 1922 - September 5, 2011

Funeral services for Mr. Howard D. Williams, 89, of Henderson, will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, September 8, 2011 in the chapel of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home with Rev. Trey Kellenberger officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home in Henderson. Family will receive friends from 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, September 7 at the funeral home. Mr. Williams passed away September 5, 2011 in Tyler. He was born March 23, 1922 in Waco to the late Lawrence and Irma Williams and was a resident of Henderson most of his life. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club for fifty-five years and was a past president of the Texas State Key Club. Mr. Williams was the meat market manager for Piggly Wiggly, worked in brick sales for Pioneer Brick, and owned W & S Hardware in Dallas. He then moved back to Henderson and worked in the retail hardware business. Mr. Williams was a member of First Christian Church. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of sixty years, Maudie Maynard Williams. Survivors include: sons, Billy E. Williams and wife Jody of Lubbock, and Ronald D. Williams and wife Pat of Garland; grandchildren, David Williams of Crandall and Kami Williams Webb of Rockwall; fourteen great-grandchildren; and a host of family and friends. The family will serve as pallbearers with the Kiwanis Club serving as honorary pallbearers. Condolences may be made online at www.crawfordacrim.com.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. My prayers are with the family. My Mother, June Torbert, was school friends with Maudie Lee and remained friends. When they moved back to Henderson, they picked up their friendship again. I visited in their home in Dallas with Barbara Maynard, a good friend of mine, one susmmer. The Williams' were great people.
