

Howard Quentin Daily

April 12, 1927 - February 22, 2012

Howard Quentin Daily, 84, of Henderson, went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on February 22, 2012 at a local nursing home. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, February 25, 2012 in the chapel of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home in Henderson with Virgel Daily officiating. Interment will follow in Williams Cemetery under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home. Family will receive friends from 6-8 p.m. Friday, February 24 at the funeral home. Mr. Daily was born April 12, 1927 to the late Stephen Ellis and Lucille Sampson Daily in Hillsboro and had lived in Henderson for the last twenty-three years. Howard enjoyed bowling, hunting and fishing, and golfing with family and friends. He also played a great game of dominoes. Mr. Daily served his country as a United States Marine in WWII, and later retired as a drilling supervisor for Exxon. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by: wife of sixty-three years, Mary Idella Daily; brothers, Fred, Jerome and Harlan Daily; and sister, Mona Gatewood. He leaves behind his three sons, Howard Wayne Daily and wife Mary Ann of Tatum, Calvin Quentin Daily and wife Janice of Austin, and Stephen Lee Daily and wife Linda of Premont; daughter, Jenneice Hammond and husband Mike of San Antonio; brothers, Nolan Daily of McKinney, Joe Daily of Arp, and Virgel Daily of Henderson; sisters, Vivian Thrash of Lake of the Pines, Gail Raybourn of Gladewater, and Reta Daily of Henderson; ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; and numerous beloved nieces, nephews, and other relatives. The grandsons will serve as pallbearers. Condolences may be made at www.crawfordacrim.com.

“ We are praying you, Jenniece, Calvin, and Steve! Uncle Howard was my favorite uncle. I remember when Uncle Howard and Aunt Mary let me stay over night in Kingsville while I was going to college and Uncle Howard told me about his experiences in Alaska working for Exxon. I remember both of them being so kind hearted and thoughtful. Love, Cousin Patti
