“ Isie was my 2nd cousin in law. My mom, Betty Ham Tiller, was 1st cousins with Roger Edmons. I always enjoyed being around Isie and her jovial take on life. I wish I could have paid my respects in person, but was unable to attend her funeral. I'm sending this note because I could not locate an address to send my condolences to her son, and loved ones. She was a sweet lady, always kept in touch with mom, and also would call me occasionally. She is missed! ”

“ Aunt Isie was one of a kind. She could always make you laugh without trying. The old saying "Hell on Wheels" definately applied to her. She was my mothers oldest sister. When my mother was little they use to ride with Aunt Isie in the hurse/ambulance she drove. Mom said they never could sit up in it because there was not enough room. They went all over the place in it and said she use to scare them to death with her driving. I use to go spend summers with her and loved every minute of it. She will be greatly missed and may she enjoy her renewed body and her life among her brothers and sisters and nephews she is with now. Love you Aunt Isie ”
