I treasure the cat show experiences i shared with Jackie & Deborah. Jackie was always the consummate lady, gracious & caring. The photo tribute is so full of love of her and family, an attribute this world needs more of in it. We all are the richer for having shared her life, even in a small way.

“ I met Mrs. Powell in August of 1985 when she was moving her beautiful daughter into a dorm room at Baylor University. Her daughter and I became instant friends, so I was blessed know Mrs. Powell over the years. She was the classiest woman I've ever met, and over the past 38 years, no one has come close in comparison. I have heard people call her a Steel Magnolia, and I can think of no better term. Her life should be the measuring stick for other mothers and wives. I have no doubt that our maker gladly met her at the gates with a warm embrace and expression of gratitude for spreading his word and living by example her entire life.
