

Mr. James Colquitt Anderson Jr.

April 27, 1919 - October 26, 2015

Memorial graveside services for James Colquitt Anderson, Jr., 96, of Tulsa, will be at 11:30 a.m., Friday, March 18, 2016 at Lakewood Memorial Park in Henderson, TX. He passed away Monday, October 26, 2015 in Tulsa, OK.

Born in Henderson, Texas, April 27, 1919, JC was the youngest son of James Sr & Pearl Tate Anderson. In 1939, JC married his one true love, Mary Nelwyn Youngblood. They were married for 56 years before Mary's death in 1995.

JC worked in the oil and gas industry buying Right of Way for Texas Pipeline and Texaco in South Louisiana. Later in his career with Texaco he moved to Houston and ultimately retired in Kerrville, TX and Santa Fe, NM. JC & Mary loved Texas, South Louisiana, San Miguel Allende, Mexico & Santa Fe. They were fortunate to travel and enjoy the culture, cuisine, people and art of all these places together for many years.

JC loved golf, playing the trumpet, dancing and listening to music, especially the big bands of 1940's. He loved his church and served as Deacon for many years in Presbyterian churches of Lafayette, La., Kerrville, TX, Santa Fe, NM.

He was preceded in death by his parents and Murray Anderson ( brother), Catherine Akard and Imogene Moore ( sisters).

He is survived by son, Stephen Anderson (Cindy), daughter, Susan Arnold (Jack), grandsons, Scott Anderson, Benjamin Anderson, Trey Arnold (Jayme), granddaughters, Danielle Bush (Lance), Elise Bross (David), Kirsten Deagen (Daniel), Rachael Lichtenberger (Jared), Ashley Briggs(Conner). Great-grandchildren, Chayse, Landry Deagen, Wyatt, James Bross and Quaid Arnold. Nephew, Bill Mealer and neice, Melissa Mealer.

The family much appreciates the many years of kind and compassionate care from Dr. Steve Gaway and staff, Donato Carreno, Poony Morris and John Karjadi . Family also wishes to thank Tulsa Jewish Retirement Nursing Center and Miller Hospice for their kindness and care.

Memorials may be made to a charity of choice.
