“ James was becoming one of my closest friends. I had the honor of knowing him, and watching the grace of God transform him into Christ's image. James had the most amazing heart for people...especially for the homeless. I'll never forget him.

Yes, James was such a kind-hearted guy, such a great friend to everyone in our church. He had gone through such a transformation when he went from just a professed “Christian” to understanding that he needed a real relationship with Jesus Christ: to really spend time reading the Bible and spending time with God. He was a changed man, humbled, loving, considerate, and yet still with a great sense of humor and wit. Everyone fell in love with James as a great friend. We miss him, and will continue to miss him. But we know he has been made whole, fully healed in all ways, and in the glory of God. Hallelujah!!!

“ James was such a light of hope and a picture of restoration through his salvation in Jesus. We became family meeting together in our home church over the past year. His tender heart with love for those around him, joy and witty banter. James will be missed but I know he is in heaven experiencing the love of the father cheering us on. See you soon buddy!
