“ I'm very sorry to hear of Jimmys passing. He is dear to my family. He & my dad Dave Ashmore were great friends. "Monk" was there for my dad during some really hard times & was a true friend! As a kid I remembered going to Jimmys house at Christmas time & he'd let me & my dad decorate the Christmas tree. Such a wonderful soul & I'm thankful for the memories. I'm also happy they're reunited as I know my dad was there welcoming his brother home. My aunt Ameer Edgar thought a lot of him too, as well as my late grandmother Mary Nell Ashmore. Rest in paradise. Until we meet again ☐ 🙏

“ My deepest condolences, I was blessed to have Jimmy as a dear friend to share my hopes and dreams when I was younger, those friendships never end. Jimmy was a friend to so many and such a fun person to be around as so many of his lifelong friends will attest. He had a heart of gold and eyes full of mischief and he will be greatly missed. May God comfort you and bring you peace. ❤️

“ My condolences to those left behind who mourn him. Jimmy sat in front of me in history in high school. He had the dryest wit and a most unassuming manner about himself. And man, could he talk! He knew lots of things about lots of subjects. He was just one of those good 'ole boys you really like. I will miss knowing another of my high school friends are gone.
