“ I'm so sorry. She was a great woman.

Mom was always mentioning how Janie was one of the best waitresses at the Kettle when I was little.

In more recent years, before we moved, it was always "Do you want to go to Janie's" If the Star Cafe was mentioned dad had no clue where we were talking about because it was always "Janie's".

We've missed the Cafe since moving. Not the Cafe or even the food so much as the atmosphere. the people. It's been almost 3 months now and we've yet to find any place like it. There was something special about Janie's and I believe it was Janie herself. She will be greatly missed.

Oh Miss Janie,it was such a pleasure knowing you and sharing all of our special moments with you and every one up at the Star. I shared my experience with my Grandchildren, Friends that became Family and you even gave one a special name,"Sleepy" because she always looked so sleepy to you but it was just her way of chilling; I have never ever been any where that made me feel so comfortable and at home as you did. Kinda like coming home. I will miss your welcome, and your smile and your laughter, but I know we will see each other again, you are the shining "Star" in my night sky to night. Thank you Miss Janie for always letting us join you for a meal..... Safe Travels in Heaven Miss Janie, Henderson, Texas will Greatly miss you. Enjoy Heaven..... Till we meet again.

Your Friends Always,
Kathy Akers & Coy Horn & Chassidy Horn,(aka) "Sleepy"
