“ I just found out today about Janna's passing. I knew her from shopping so many times at Spotted Zebra. I always loved to talk to her and shared many conversations with her and she picked many of my outfits. I thought she was such a beautiful person inside and out. I am devastated to hear of the sad news and its unfortunate that I didn't find out until today. I heard her name before but didn't know her full name until today. I am so sorry for your loss. She will definitely be missed in our community.

“ Dearest Janna, you were a glowing testament to the God whom you faithfully served: I never once saw you being uncordial to anyone. Your lovely smile brightened every cloudy day, and your sweet compassion lifted the spirit of everyone in your company. On your deathbed, you inspired a resounding chorus of love-filled prayers to be lifted earnestly in Jesus' name to our Heavenly Father. Furthermore, as you exhaled your last sweet breath, you unreservedly gave precious life to anonymous strangers. Janna, you exemplify definitively the Christian Love to which the rest of us aspire. As your celestial essence and angelic wings unfold, your terrestrial memory will continue to positively influence countless lives. Your very existence has truly lifted the bar for Humanity. So, on behalf of myself and all who share these sentiments, thank you for sharing YOUR Christian Love.
