I just found out about the passing of dear sweet Jean Bassett. She was my devoted realtor 8 years ago and we became friends. We kept in touch by phone but the last days of her life I was going through cancer which she didn't know. I had no idea she was I'll either. I only knew of her back issues.I am so saddened to hear of her transition to heaven. She was definitely an Angel here on earth. I'm sad we were both going through health issues and lost touch. I watched her beautiful video here and mourned the loss of a sweet friend. A lovely lady whom will be missed deeply My condolences go out to her family whom she spoke of with so much love. My prayers for her family are late but so heartfelt. Sincerely, Sharion Brumbelow, 4341 Madera Dr.

Tyler, Tx 75707

She put me here in my home. 🙏🙏💕

“ Aunt Jean Jean was a wonderful and amazing woman. She could make anyone giggle, and to watch her smile and her eyes dance was infectious. Recently, Her and I connected again. She always listen to me after I visited my mom. But we loved to laugh and remember things.

Lol I have always told her she was the funniest and sexiest Aunt I have. She would giggle. She would tell shhhh our secret. We would laugh when we talk about things like my great grand mama. And things she would say ‘Little Sweet’. The we laughed even harder remembering the names we all had fr0m Big Mama. Which was Little Block, Little Rake, Little Brick, and little Mike Todd. From that to my Nana cat Tut.

She was my aunt an great person texts pictures and jokes made her one of my friends.

Love Aunt Jean and miss you so much
