Jeremy was born on May 3, 1990, in Ansbach, Germany. He passed away on November 1, 2025, in Henderson. Jeremy served his country in the United States Army, where he was a member of the Military Police for five years. During this time he was stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky and served 12 months in Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. After his military service, he became an over the road trucker and traveled all across the country. Jeremy was a member of First Baptist Church of Henderson where he was baptized and saved.

Jeremy had a huge heart and loved all his family very dearly and unconditionally. His favorite pastime was being with those he loved. He was the “Funkle” to his nieces, nephews, and to all kids that crossed his path. He loved life. He enjoyed cooking and was really good at it, as well as fishing, driving tractors, helping others, and being with family and friends. At night, you could find him on his headset playing Fort Night and building his farm on the Farming Simulator game.

Jeremy was preceded in death by his grandparents, Bobby Gene and Gereva Reider Dalme, "Granny" Bernice Jones, John Douglas and Wanda Faye Dubois; great-aunt, Gwen Long and brother-in-law, Louis Kay.

Survivors include his parents, Brett Dalme and wife Janet of Henderson, Sandy Dubois of Lake Charles, Louisiana; brothers and sisters, Michael Caldwell and wife Kayla of Manhattan, Kansas, Josh Dalme and wife Chelsea of Edgewater, Florida, Lauren Kay of Robeline, Louisiana, Amber Commons and husband Hunter of Alabama, Christopher Bonner and wife Molleigh of Longview; uncles and aunts, Brian and Marie Dalme, Bruce and Kerri Dalme, Barry and Kristi Dalme, Bradley and Jamie Dalme, Eddie and Helon Johnson; nieces and nephews, Maddilynn and Jase Caldwell, Zane, Landon, and Parker Dalme, Jenna and Bailey Poole, Karley Fancher, Remington, Carter, and Maverick Bonner, Chloe and Piper Kay; and a host of cousins, other family, and friends.

Pallbearers will be Joshua Dalme, Michael Caldwell, Christopher Bonner, Bruce Dalme, Brian Dalme, Berry Dalme, and Bradley Dalme.
