

Mr. Jess "Junior" (JJ) Bazar

November 30, 1927 - March 4, 2019

Funeral services for Mr. Jess "Junior" (JJ) Bazar, 91, of Henderson, will be held Thursday, March 7, 2019, at 2 PM in the chapel of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home with Dr. John Cunyus officiating. Interment will be in Lakewood Memorial Park under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home in Henderson.

Family will receive friends from 1:00 to 2:00 PM immediately preceding the service at the funeral home.

Junior Bazar was born on November 30, 1927, in Tabler, Oklahoma, to Jess and Edna Bazar and died on Monday, March 4, 2019, at Brookdale Assisted Living. He grew up in Oklahoma, and married Dorotha (Allen) Bazar in 1948. They moved to Henderson in 1955 to begin the family business of White's Auto Store, eventually Western Auto, in downtown Henderson. Mr. Bazar was a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, and entrepreneur. He was an active business owner until his declining health. He worked hard to build a thriving business that both served his community and provided for his family. His strong character and work ethic made him a good businessman. In his younger years, he could be found at the horse races, enjoying oysters at Johnny Cace's Restaurant or working in his yard keeping it tidy and groomed all year long. Mr. Bazar was a member of First Christian Church of Henderson, where he served as an Elder Emeritus. He served as a member of the Kiwanis Club as well as a member of the Henderson ISD school board.

Mr. Bazar was preceded in death by: parents, Jess & Edna Bazar, wife, Dorotha, and an infant daughter.

Survivors include: daughters, Vicki Johnson (Chester) of Henderson, Sharon Spoon (Rick) of Henderson, Robin Yeager (Mike) of Houston & Dawn Carnline (Marty) of New Caney; grandchildren, Corey Spoon (Taylor) of Henderson, Casi Dickerson (Sean) of Henderson, Emily Shores of Houston, Courtney Ashmore (Casey) of Henderson, Matthew Yeager of Washington DC, Dane Johnson (Jennifer) of Oklahoma City, Christie Tomplait (Bryan) Lindale, Clint Carnline (Darlene) of Conroe, and Chisa Sherlock (Jesse) of New Caney, & 19 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be his son-in-laws and grandsons.

The family wishes to say a word of special thanks to Brookdale Assisted Living for their years of care and patience. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Christian Church, 306 North Main, Henderson, Texas, 75652.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.crawfordacrim.com.

“ *Saddened to hear today of Mr. B's passing. Only having known him in business I can say my life was blessed to have known him. We shared many thoughts on business along with life as I would visit him at least once a month for 10 years. My job changed and it had been a while since his retirement but always kept up with him through his lovely daughter Vickie. Mr. Bazar was a wonderful man in character and had a great business mind. So helpful to folks in Henderson. I asked him once when he would retire and he said probably would not but as time has it's way we all change courses either in want to or have to. He talked about his wife often and shared a few memories so I knew there was a special bond with family for him. He and his daughter Vickie were partners and she helped him in his business. She learned from one of the best! A fond memory for me is he was at home recovering from sickness and I stopped by the store asking Vickie if i could go see him at home she said he would love a visit and i asked her if i could take him something. She told me he loved black walnut ice cream so i stopped at the store got some Blue Bell Black Walnut and went to see him. His home place was beautiful and he sat in the den with me and we visited talking old business times. He provided a special service to so many in Henderson. A great man has transcended to his belief in the promise of his faith Christ. I have missed his acquaintance for some time but i will always remember him and his good nature. And Vickie was right, he did very much enjoy the ice cream. Godspeed my friend Godspeed Mr. J J Bazar.
Respectfully, Tommy Stahl.*

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family, Mr. Bazar was such a nice person. I enjoyed being his neighbor. He was always working, keeping his yard immaculate. He was a self-made man. I am very glad I knew him. Peace be with you all.

“ My grandparents, Langston and Marie Dennard, were life long friends with Junior and Dortha. Along with Bill and Carol Davis usually there on whatever adventure they were on as well. I have very good memories of all of them. I hope we will all carry on the tradition for many years to come. I hope y'all are all sitting by the pool on a warm summer day catching up like the good ol days...

“ My sincere sympathies to all the family. Having grown up in Henderson, I knew the Bazar's well. His girls were sweet friends, the ever so popular White's Auto was across from my Dad's store Cherokee Hardware. A day didn't pass without seeing and talking with Jr. Bazar. He was a gentle, kind man and will be remembered sweetly.

“ What a wonderful man! So thankful I got to be a part of his life these last several years. I don't ever remember him seeing him upset or mad about anything. He was quiet, gentle and mannered but yet definitely made me chuckle a time or two as he would slip in a wisecrack ever so often. He was loyal and genuine and I loved him and I love his family. Love and prayers to you all.
