

Mr. Jesse Hardy

April 16, 1983 - November 22, 2025

Mr. Jesse Hardy, 42, of Kilgore, formerly of Henderson, laid down the troubles of this earthly life and joined his Savior on November 22, 2025. He was born April 16, 1983, in Henderson, where he lived most all of his life. Jesse attended West Rusk schools and was briefly a Carlisle Indian. He later went on to a career in the oil field, most recently working for BASA Resources in Kilgore. Jesse was a hardworking man and dedicated himself to the job at hand.

Jesse was a jokester who lived life on the edge. Inside of that charismatic personality though was a very loving and caring man. He was a giving man and always thought of others and put them before himself. There was never a dull moment with him. He treated everyone like family, and he always gave people his opinion and the best advice he could offer. Jesse had an unwavering love for his sons; the driving force of his life. He loved his family unconditionally and enjoyed each moment with them.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Charles and Ada Edna Hardy, and Gallant Lee and Pauline Schultz, his father Randy Hardy, mother Janet Schultz, and his uncle Tony Hardy.

Survivors include his sons Cullen and Kaysen Hardy; brother Lucas Hardy; cousins TJ and Keeley Hardy; the mother of his children and only love Ashley Skrine; mother and father-in-law Jackie and Walter Skrine; sisters and brother-in-law Mandi Skrine and Freeman LeJeune, Katlin Skrine, and Walter Charles and Jessica Skrine; nephews and nieces Trey, Summer, Colby, Bryant, Michael, Elijah, Sophia, and Claire; his Tarbutton family; and a host of other nephews, cousins, and many friends.

“ Words can never fix a pain of grief. And as hard as we try we will never understand why the world takes away someone with so much life left to live. I know they say time heals but sadly it doesn't. This is a pain that you pick up every morning when you wake up just like your wallet and some days it's gonna weigh more than others and those heavy days it's ok to not be alright. Lean on your loved ones
