“ I first met Jesse, he was a little four year old boy going to a speech therapist with my oldest son Geoffrey. Jesse was always such a polite kid to be around. Every time I saw him out in public, he always had such a wonderful smile & never shied away from giving me a hug. I remember when he started working at Wal-Mart & got his new truck, he was so excited. He took me out to it, to check it out, and just had the biggest look of joy and excitement on his face. He was so proud of himself and the changes he was making in his life. I told him that day, to keep smiling, keep moving forward, and let God have control. I will sure miss that kid. Prayers lifted for you Kim, Gabriel, Isaiah, Tressie, Travis, and the rest of the family.
