“ Barbara, it has been a real inspiration to read these memorial notes and view the video of your husband. I am always humbled to see a Christian man with a lifetime of service to our country. (I served in the Army - but not career). It will be my pleasure to meet Jessie after we have all graduated for the last time. May the Lord continue to graciously uphold you each day. Jerry Owens '57

“ To Anita, Barbara and Family, What a wonderful video tribute to your Dad and Husband! I cried watching it. What a wonderful family you have and have enjoyed for all of these years. I just want you to know that I love you and you are all in my prayers every day. Jesse is in heaven with the Lord now and is out of his pain and suffering. Keep your faith strong and look forward to the day that you can see him again. -Joy & Jim Hammond

“ Dear Tina, Anita, and Jess Patrick, When we were stationed in Hawaii, this handsome naval officer came knocking on my door. He introduced himself as your mom's fiance. I fell in love with him then, and that love only grew!! I know you know how blessed you were to have him. And, so was I. Love, Aunt Ginny

“ Barbara, I have not been able to get you off my mind today..... and as a result, this day has been one long prayer for you and your children. This is so difficult but God will get you through it. I sent the information about Jess to many of our high school friends and I see that they have already started to sent e.mails in this guest book. We are all in this together, so if you need something that we can help with, please don't hesitate to let us know. May God's blessings be abundant and his presence be felt in your life. May God give you peace through the days to come. Love, Nelle.

“ Barbara and Family,What an amazing legacy of precious memories your husband provided for his family! Surely he is one of the TRUE HEROES of America! The video revealed the love shared by your family members. We know his absence will be difficult for the entire family. Be assured all of you will be in the prayers of many close friends, acquaintances, and even those of us, your high school classmates, who may not have had the privilege of knowing Officer Jessie Henry Kelly. We offer our Thanks to Commander Kelly and his family for the sacrifices made while serving his country in preserving our freedom and protecting us all here at home. May GOD continue to bless and comfort you in the days to come.Sincerely,Rawley & Jean (Anderson) CainOlive Branch, Ms
