“ I was so shocked to hear of Jimmy's death. We grew up together near Tolar and went to school at Tolar together. Jimmy and Gene lived only about two miles from us and we visited often. Jimmy's mother was my daddy's baby sister. Those were happy times in the 40's and 50's and I have many fond memories of visting in my aunt's home and playing with Jimmy and Gene. Jimmy's younger brother, Darrell, lives in Glen Rose and we visit often at ballgames and family get-togethers. I try to keep up with Jimmy's family through Darrell, but it is difficult since we live so far away. My wife, Rhonda, and I extend our condolences to the family. Love to all of you.

“ Sue and I offer our sincere condolences to Jimmy's family. I am glad I was able to speak to Jimmy at the hospital the day before his bypass surgery was to have been done. We were shocked to learn of his death. We have only been in touch by telephone for most of the time Jimmy has lived in East Texas, and only have met some members of his family, Sherilyn and James in person; Rhonda on the telephone and James Allen by e-mail. Jim Morrison, Jimmy's father, was my Dad's favorite brother and my favorite Morrison uncle. I wish we had been closer. I'll always remember Jimmy and Gene before we were 5 years old, playing in the sand near Grandma Morrison's home at Tolar. We were together often when my family visited Tolar; we all grew up, and our lives took their various directions, as things usually happen. Warm memories remain. God grant you all peace, in His own good time. Love to all Jimmy's loved ones, John Morrison
