“ You were my rock, you were my best friend I was wrapped around your finger since day one. I love you daddy you taught me so much and I wish McKynlee was about to experience the same. You were a loving, kindhearted, caring, loyal man I have ever known. There will never be another man on this earth that can mount up to you. Fly high daddy I miss you

“ Over the past two years I was blessed to get to know my Dad as more than just my Dad. He became a friend and a confidant and a daily reminder that I am loved and cherished. Mere words can never express what he meant to me.
