“ Jo Ann and I were neighbors from the late 50' or early 60's, can't remember the exact year, but she and Charles moved across the street from us when Ray Gene and our son Alan were very small. There are too many memories to share which also include both our husbands, Charles and Tom. We went on vacation trips, to the movies, out to eat, bowling, putting our meals together, etc. Jo Ann and I visited often having yard sales together, walking along with other friends in the neighborhood, sharing coffee with others at Mary Ann McClenny's, working in the Methodist church together, decorating Homecoming floats, catering Wedding receptions with Gail Risinger and Barbara Thomas, the list goes on and on....I know I'm leaving something out. We shared many fun times and sad times over the years. Our whole neighborhood used to decorate our street on Holidays...especially Christmas, but there is a really funny story about one Halloween when I was handing out candy these two hippy looking characters in wigs and costume came running up the sidewalk and right into the house. I didn't have a clue as to who they were. I turned out to be Jo Ann and Mary Ann McClenny. Need Mary Ann to tell the whole story. So may wonderful memories. After Tom and I moved to Lake Murvaul we didn't stay in touch as much, but she was a good friend and neighbor.
RIP Jo Ann. You are loved.
