“ JoAnn was such a kind and giving person, she was like a second mother to me when I dated David many yrs ago. I felt so at home in her little apt in Dallas, several times visited her mother & Doyle in Henderson. I will always have a special place in my heart for her & David, as they both saved me from a horrible marriage. I wish David & Amanda well, and offer my sincere condolences. JoAnn was as good as they get.

“ Jo Ann took me shopping for new school clothes at North Park Mall when I was 12 years old. I was having a hard time as a pre-adolescent girl, and she spent needed "girl time" with me. She also planned my 13th birthday along with my dad, Roland Lewis, at the Magic Time Machine in Dallas. I'll always remember that special birthday. They gave me a silver unicorn pendant necklace. I'm 44 years old now, that was over thirty years ago, yet a very strong, lovely memory for me.

Jo Ann also attended some of our family parties along with my dad. She was always a gracious, fun-loving guest. She was sitting on my fireplace mantle at the turn of the millenium after gifting me with lovely "2000 shaped" champagne flutes. She will be missed, but also live on in our many fond memories.

Warm thoughts and all my sympathy for your loss, Anna Thomas
(Roland Lewis' daughter)
