“ It was an honor and my pleasure to be Joe's daughter in law through the years. He was a true Texas gentleman and his wry humor could always bring a smile to my face. I will miss our unique friendship. Like my sister in law Kyle, I believe Joe is sitting next to Jesus now. I hope he knows how much I appreciate how well he raised the man I married and how much I already miss him.

“ Joe was the only father in law I've known. He was always kind and supportive of Rick and me. He loved life and liked to try new things. We explored lots of fun restaurants. Right after Rick and I got married, we all went to visit NYC, where I had lived. He was a hoot and we had lots of fun. I know he is sitting at the feet of Jesus tonight.
