“ Tracie & Family,

Words cannot express the sorrow felt that such a beautiful soul was taken too soon.

But Our Lord and Saviour needed him in heaven to fulfill his plan. He fought a long hard fight and he has won the battle. I pray for your hearts to be consoled and comforted.

Always knowing that God has him and he will be with you always. He was the nicest person and always had a smile on his face, not once did i ever see him picking up our packages without a nice word or a smile or little chuckle on his face. He was the best.

I remember every day him coming into randall dodge to get our parts and i would say

" here comes the up's man" he would just smile and tracie i remember when you would ride with him to deliver packages during the holidays!!! Bless you both ya'll were so much fun to see and talk to for a few seconds... We love you both!! The Lord has laid the temple of a true angel to rest forever in his mansion. R. I.P. Joe, you will be truly missed and never forgotten!! you left a gift with everyone you ever met, the kindness and friendship that only a man of God could have, and you impacted many lives while on your journey.

We are praying for you all, The Lord has you wrapped in his arms of grace and mercy and will never leave you nor forsake you. He sees your tears and hears your cries and will comfort you. Give him always the the Praise and Glory!!

Joe you have your wings now, and you fly high and soar with the eagles for you are the Lords now forever more.

We will see you again oneday, until then rest in peace, oh child of God!!!

Love In Christ

“ From the first time I met met Joe after moving to Henderson, no one - who wasn't related to me - made me feel more welcome, or interesting, than this sweet man. He asked about my sports teams, paid my family members genuine compliments, made me feel so ..... (struggling to find the correct word) - important. That's not overstating it. For a man who's career was perpetual motion - I was always astounded by his ability to make people feel important. It was a such a pleasure to see Joe or run into him during your day. You were guaranteed a smile. I will not ever think of Joe without seeing that smiling face. And nothing made that smile bigger or brighter than talking about his girls...the love of his life, Tracie, his precious daughters-Megan & Holly, and his kid sista', Ashley. We were all just so blessed to have him in our lives. His kindness will be with me forever. Rest up Joe.....you're guardian angel job is just getting started! ;-)

When I first met Joe, I told him he didn't LOOK like a "Joe" but more like a "Bill" so I started calling him "Joe Bill" and the joke went on every time I saw him after that. He really was a wonderful person to get to know and become friends with and he NEVER slowed down on his job with UPS. Sending heartfelt sympathies to all of Joe's family and friends at this sad time in life. Joe Bill will ALWAYS be fondly remembered.
